MEDIA ALERT: CARNIVAL PANORAMA’S NEW YEAR-ROUND MEXICAN RIVIERA SAILINGS NOW OPEN

Good morning,

Carnival Cruise Line announced reservations are now open for the new Carnival Panorama, offering year-round, seven-day cruises from Long Beach, Southern California from December 2019. The 133,500-ton ship will become the first new Carnival ship deployed on the West Coast of the USA in 20 years.

With Long Beach accessible via just one direct flight to Los Angeles, Aussie cruise lovers can enjoy stunning destinations along the Mexican Riviera, including Cabo San Lucas, Mazatlán and Puerto Vallarta, departing Long Beach every Saturday.

Guests onboard Carnival Panorama are promised a spectacular holiday, exploring crystal-clear beaches, delicious food and on-land adventures. From the underwater scenery of Cabo San Lucas, sparkling nightlife of Puerto Vallarta and La Paz to the energising fun of sport fishing, Mexican Riviera cruises inspire a feeling of a true

Carnival Panorama will offer indoor and al fresco food and beverage concepts, including the Fahrenheit 555 steakhouse, Library Bar, and Bonsai Sushi. Also featured are ground-breaking attractions SkyRide, a bike-ride-in-the-sky attraction, a massive WaterWorks aqua park, and the SportSquare open-air recreation space.

Additionally, the ship will boast a vibrant Havana section with tropics-inspired staterooms and its own Cuban-themed bar and pool, Family Harbor featuring extra-roomy accommodations, and the luxurious Cloud 9 Spa.
